HEAR TALK OF PEACE

Italy Not To Change Course If European War Comes.

(By The Associated Press) The continued concentration of Italian troops in the province of Libya, bordering Egypt on the west, was met today with the decision of the British cabinet to carry on its preparedness program in the Mediterranean area.

(By The Associated Press) Talk of peace in Ethiopia was heard in the capitals of Europe today, but it was a whisper compared with the roars of war. The fascist legions of Il Duce were driving into the strategic interior of Haile Selassie's empire.

In the south, the Ethiopian tribal warriors invaded Italian Somali-Premier Pierre Laval of France led the offensive for peace. In Geneva, the Laval peace plan was outlined in League of Nations circles as follows: Ethiopia would give all of the northern Tigre province, now held Iaile Selassie's empire—thus a. lowing Italy to build a railroad from north to south on the eastern border of Ethiopia, connecting his provinces of Eritrea on the north and Somaliland on the south.

The Italians—their East African armies driving south against Makale in northern Ethiopia; and north toward strategically-important Harar in the southern-eastern sector - gave the Laval plan the cold shoulder.

But Laval's efforts were fruit-

A government spokesman in Rome said Italy was well aware of Laval's efforts. He added, however, that Rome was not a party to any negotiations.

Not To Change Course "Even a European war," the spokesman said, would not turn the fascist nation from its East African course. Likewise gloomy was the outlook in Paris, Laval's own capital, In official government circles, the following view was given: "Laval's view is that the Italian
